FAIRPLAY

Fairplay are an electronic duo from Jordan blending house music with Arabic textures, storytelling, and atmosphere. With hypnotic grooves and subtle Middle Eastern influences, they've carved out a sound that feels both global and deeply rooted in their heritage.

Beyond the studio and stage, Fairplay are co-founders of Vudu Amman, a record label and events series pushing forward the underground scene in Jordan. Their commitment to creating spaces for connection also extends to Fairplay & Friends, a collaborative project that brings together artists from across the region and beyond for unique musical experiences.

Their tracks have reached hundreds of thousands worldwide, while their sets, emotional, hypnotic, and driving, have earned them a place alongside some of the world's most respected acts such as Keinemusik, &friends and Dixon . At home, they stand at the center of a growing movement, building a platform where East and West meet on the dance floor.

At their core, Fairplay stand for connection, between tradition and modernity, sound and feeling, artists and communities. Each release, event, and performance is a reminder that music is not just entertainment, but a story unfolding together.
